

Right on Time!!!

Christmas seems to have come early this year. I know with the retailers seeming to promote Christmas, Black Friday shopping, and putting out Christmas décor earlier and earlier each year, this seems to drive the "holiday spirit." But this year is different (that is the understatement of the century). But seriously, there seems to be a sense of pressing towards this holiday celebration. Myself and others forgetting it was still November and we had to do Thanksgiving first. Many others putting up trees and Christmas decorations far earlier than in years past. I think this speaks to something deeper in the heart of humanity, especially this year.

♥ "O Lord, You have heard the desire and the longing of the humble and oppressed; You will prepare and strengthen and direct their hearts, You will cause Your ear to hear, to do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed, so that man, who is of the earth, may not terrify them anymore."

— Psalm 10:17-18 Amp. Trans.

There were those in the times leading up to the Messiah's birth, who had a deep longing for His appearing. They understood the times and the Scriptures, as well as sensed a deep longing for God's provision of salvation. This makes me think of the two precious saints who were privileged to witness the infant Jesus' dedication.

♥ "So Mary and Joseph took the baby Jesus to Jerusalem to be dedicated before the Lord..... As they came to the temple to fulfill this requirement, an elderly man was there waiting—a resident of Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. He was a very good man, a lover of God who kept himself pure, and the Spirit of holiness rested upon him. Simeon believed in the imminent appearing of the one called "The Refreshing of Israel." For the Holy Spirit had revealed to him that he would not see death before he saw the Messiah, the Anointed One of God. For this reason the Holy Spirit had moved him to be in the temple court at the very moment Jesus' parents entered to fulfill the requirement of the sacrifice. Simeon cradled the baby in his arms and praised God and prophesied..."

— Luke 2:22b, 25-28 TPT

One can sense the strength of the longing of someone who would dedicate their lives to seeking God and pursuing His Promise with their entire lives. Simeon held the Son of God in his arms! He had cradled the Promise of God in his heart for years, protecting and pursuing God until finally He held the fulfillment, physically in his arms!

There was another dedicated seeker there that day named Anna. She had given nearly her entire life pursuing the Lord and was rewarded on this same day!

♥ "A prophetess named Anna was also in the temple court that day. She was from the Jewish tribe of Asher and the daughter of Phanuel. Anna was an aged widow who had been married only seven years before her husband passed away. After he died she chose to worship God in the temple continually. For the past eighty-four years she had been serving God with night-and-day prayer and fasting. While Simeon was prophesying over Mary and Joseph and the baby, Anna walked up to them and burst forth with a great chorus of praise to God for the child. And from that day forward she told everyone in Jerusalem who was waiting for their redemption that the anticipated Messiah had come!"

— Luke 2:36-38 TPT

I love this narrative of these two precious lovers of God. Their lives, though well-advanced, had not been in vain and they were allowed to see the goodness of God in the land of the living! They saw what so many had desired to see for centuries!

They saw the answer to the longing in their hearts, the deep ache that nothing else could satisfy.

This year as we move towards, and for many have already entered the Christmas season, let's receive a greater measure of the Promise in our lives. Let's remember the God, Who rewards those who seek Him.

♥ "And without faith living within us it would be impossible to please God. For we come to God in faith knowing that he is real and that he rewards the faith of those who give all their passion and strength into seeking him."

— Hebrews 11:6 TPT

We so need a living faith!!! Let's allow our hearts to be filled again with the wonder of a Baby in a manger, Who changed the world. No beginning is too small and too humble for an all-powerful God to use it to change the world!

♥ "This is God's Message to Zerubbabel: "You can't force these things. They only come about through my Spirit," says God-of-the-Angel-Armies. "So, big mountain, who do you think you are? Next to Zerubbabel you're nothing but a molehill. He'll proceed to set the Cornerstone in place, accompanied by cheers: Yes! Yes! Do it!" After that, the Word of God came to me: 'Zerubbabel started rebuilding this Temple and he will complete it. That will be your confirmation that God-of-the-Angel-Armies sent me to you. Does anyone dare despise this day of small beginnings? They'll change their tune when they see Zerubbabel setting the last stone in place!"

— Zechariah 4:6-10 The Message

God was encouraging His people that the temple would be rebuilt and no matter how impossible it looked! The mockers would change their tune when they saw God, by His Spirit, bring it to pass. No matter how small you may feel, no matter how insignificant — you and God are a majority and He will fulfill what He has promised! It doesn't matter how little seems to be happening now, God is able to breathe on it, multiply it and use it for His glory — right on time!

No matter how hard this season may be for us individually or corporately. Let's remember we serve a God who is always right on time! He always keeps His promises; His Word can never return void, and if He has promised — it will surely come to pass.

♥ "But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons."

— Galatians 4:4-5 NKJV

Just like Jesus was born at just the right time to fulfill all that was spoken of Him and for us — God will break in on our behalf at just the right time! My prayer for all of us is that we would seek Him with all of our hearts and as we find Him in greater measures through His Word and in our lives, we would be like Anna and tell all those, who desperately need to know, that there is a God Who keeps His Word and comes to all of us — right on time.

Let's be a light for those who are longing for hope! Let's look for Jesus, cry out for His intervention, and share the consolation of the Holy One with the world desperate for what only He can provide!! God will come through for us — right on time!

Quotes:

"The central miracle asserted by Christians is the incarnation. They say that God became man."
— C. S. Lewis

"It is impossible to conceive how different things would have turned out if that birth had not happened whenever, wherever, however it did ... for millions of people who have lived since, the birth of Jesus made possible not just a new way of understanding life but a new way of living it. It is a truth that, for twenty centuries, there have been untold numbers of men and women who, in untold numbers of ways, have been so grasped by the child who was born, so caught up in the message he taught and the life he lived, that they have found themselves profoundly changed by their relationship with him."
— Frederick Buechner

New Product Releases: RAISING UP A STANDARD! "In a time of changing morals and shifting boundaries – it's time for the church to hold the line. This generation finds itself in the swirling chaos of a culture that has lost its way. Values have slid recklessly through the decades. Human bias and opinion have become deeply entrenched in modern theology which has even shifted the core doctrines of the church. With our Biblical identity being The Light of the World how can we function in this and darkness at the same time? When is far enough, far enough? When will there arise a people after His heart that will align themselves with God's heart and cry out for His ways?" (2 CDs)
