

TURNING THE ASHES!! – 2021

A Year of Beauty & Rebuilding!!!

As I listened for the Word for 2021 – I heard Turning the Ashes – but it wasn't as if a slow rising up or even a progressive change – it was a violent wind of change – a tornadic image of power and progress began to swell on the horizon.

This will be a year of great change and great recovery! This will be a year of the turnaround (especially in impossible situations!) A year of faith surging and reaching and receiving the provision of God!

How can this be – in a season of great darkness? There will be a magnification of the Presence and power of God! Greater revelation and expression of the knowledge of God in the earth – this always precedes His glorious Presence.

Because of the great darkness you must choose to live in the light intentionally! STAND FIRM, IMMOVABLE AND DO NOT BE SHAKEN! God is greater than the seen and He is working behind the scenes to bring forth His purposes!!

There must be an end to passive, lazy, distracted Christianity. It's time to serve God wholeheartedly, with great passion and pursuit!! These are the days where hunger will be answered! We must FIGHT FORWARD personally and corporately – NO MORE STAGNATION!

It is time for the manifestation and reality of God to be known again in the streets of our cities! I heard the Spirit of God say: "Where is the Lord God of Elijah?" We must cry out for works of God in our day! For the lost to know Him, not religion; for there to be a witness – evidence again, of GOD WITH US!

We must also build ourselves personally – this is a year to leave nothing undone. Take up the dreams of days gone by, the goals, and the visions that we have let decay – the wind of the Spirit is blowing and the ashes are turning to beauty – nonfulfillment is turning to reality – wishes are turning to hope and hope is turning to faith and faith is finding us standing in a changed now!

Be still and know that I am God – in the waiting of our secret place the winds of the Spirit are blowing. Don't neglect these times or the seemingly small beginnings – small, small seeds are germinating and there is mighty change being initiated in the spirit.

We must prepare ourselves for the more we have hoped for – receive renewed hope, renewed desire, and renewed vision to first see and then call those things that be not as though they were! This is a year of living out of our spirits, denying the flesh to dictate and determine our path! Jesus Christ is our Lord in every aspect and every dimension of our lives – living out of this will produce supernatural affects upon all that concerns us.

Do not be discouraged or dismayed by what you see now – this is a year of turning – a year of dead things being revived and resurrected! Take courage and stand tall and strong in the power of My Spirit for surely you will walk in great victory and witness great transformation for the glory of My Father. Rejoice for the strength and possibility you have hoped for is found in Me!
