JUSTIFIED!!

We are a month past the celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord but we must not put away our joy and celebratory praise because a date on the calendar is passed. The reality of the resurrection is beyond our vocabulary in wonder and the magnitude of its effects! One such magnanimous result which was produced for us by the resurrection is our justification!

❤ "Now it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him, but also for us. It shall be imputed to us who believe in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was delivered up because of our offenses, and was raised because of our justification."

– Romans 4:23-25 NKJV

Truly our Messiah was offered on the altar of the cross for our transgressions! He did not hang there and die a criminal's death for any wrong that He had done, NO! It was for our crimes, our faults and failures, our offenses and debts of sin that He suffered a death not deserved by His sinless life. However, because He dies this way….the Sinless for the sinner….there was a divine exchange in the economy of Heaven. A pardon we hadn't earned or deserved was granted to us because of the redemptive payment made by Jesus!

❤ "For God made the only one who did not know sin to become sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God through our union with him."

– 2 Corinthians 5:2 TPT

Now here is the spectacular part: the proof of God's acceptance of that payment as sufficient and adequate is the resurrection of Christ. The resurrection of Christ proves that God is not holding the debt of our sins against us, we are released from the "death-requirement" incurred by those sins.

> "Jesus was handed over to be crucified for the forgiveness of our sins and was raised back to life to prove that he had made us right with God!" – Romans 4:25 TPT

❤ "For sin's meager wages is death, but God's lavish gift is life eternal, found in your union with our Lord Jesus, the Anointed One."

– Romans 6:23 TPT

We have a nature that we cannot change, improve, or modify. We are born in sin. The only remedy for this stain, the only hope of being right with God is believing in the work that Jesus accomplished in His death and resurrection.

❤ "We have come into an intimate experience with God's love, and we trust in the love he has for us. God is love! Those who are living in love are living in God, and God lives through them. By living in God, love has been brought to its full expression in us so that we may fearlessly face the day of judgment, because all that Jesus now is, so are we in this world."

– 1 John 4:16-17 TPT

This truly goes beyond our salvation and our assurance of Heaven beyond death. God desires for us to live in the reality of our justification – NOW! To live like we aren't bound by sin and death and the sin nature. A simple way to remember what justification means is the phrase: Just-as-if-I-never-sinned! This is how God can see us now because of what Jesus has accomplished! Let's look at a familiar incident in Jesus' life that I believe illustrates this clearly for us!

❤ "Jesus walked up the Mount of Olives near the city where he spent the night. Then at dawn Jesus appeared in the temple courts again, and soon all the people gathered around to listen to his words, so he sat down and taught them. Then in the middle of his teaching, the religious scholars and the Pharisees broke through the crowd and brought a woman who had been caught in the act of committing adultery and made her stand in the middle of everyone. Then they said to Jesus, 'Teacher, we caught this woman in the very act of adultery. Doesn't Moses' law command us to stone to death a woman like this? Tell us, what do you say we should do with her?' They were only testing Jesus because they hoped to trap him with his own words and accuse him of breaking the laws of Moses. But Jesus didn't answer them. Instead he simply bent down and wrote in the dust with his finger. Angry, they kept insisting that he answer their question, so Jesus stood up and looked at them and said, 'Let's have the man who has never had a sinful desire throw the first stone at her.' And then he bent over again and wrote some more words in the dust. Upon hearing that, her accusers slowly left the crowd one at a time, beginning with the oldest to the youngest, with a convicted conscience. Until finally, Jesus was left alone with the woman still standing there in front of him. So he stood back up and said to her, 'Dear woman, where are your accusers? Is there no one here to condemn you?' Looking around, she replied, 'I see no one, Lord.' Jesus said, "Then I certainly don't condemn you either. Go, and from now on, be free from a life of sin."

– John 8:1-11 TPT

I cannot imagine the disgrace and embarrassment that this woman felt as she was thrust into the midst of a crowd of people listening to Jesus. We notice that it was the "religious" people of Jesus' society who shoved a troubled woman, invoking and intending to shame her for her faults. (I'm praying for the day that we stop trumpeting people's faults and instead we hold the broken as we introduce them to the Healer.)

After the famed exchange and all those who had brought accusation realizing their own guilt and inability to cast a stone with clear conscience dropped their stones and walked away. Truly, the only One who could have condemned her set her free. For years I have missed the point of Jesus' question and His heart intent to release this woman once and for all, not only from her sin, but from the residue of guilt and condemnation that weighs us down and prevents us from living in the full power of Christ's redemptive liberty!

❤ "Until finally, Jesus was left alone with the woman still standing there in front of him. So he stood back up and said to her, 'Dear woman, where are your accusers? Is there no one here to condemn you?'"

– John 8:10 TPT

There is so much power for freedom in one question from Jesus: Where are your accusers? We must realize what has been accomplished for us through Jesus!

❤ "Looking around, she replied, 'I see no one, Lord.' Jesus said, 'Then I certainly don't condemn you either. Go, and from now on, be free from a life of sin.'"

– John 8:11 TPT

It is time to lift up our heads and realize – no one can accuse what Jesus has forgiven! No one can lay on us what Jesus has lifted! NO ONE can label what Jesus has rewritten! This is our story! Jesus has risen from the dead because we are justified!! Jesus' resurrection proves that we are right with God! It's time to hear Jesus' words: "Neither do I condemn you!"

Then Jesus tells her: don't live like you used to – live in the reality of who you are now! The truth is, we cannot live powerful lives when we are weighted down by guilt and condemnation.

Let's begin to live in the reality of the resurrection! No longer do we need to live in the deadness of sin-filled, condemnation encroached lives! Jesus' resurrection proves we are right with God! Let's live it and tell it!

❤ Much love from all of us at WILD!

Quotes:

"We are not going to move this world by criticism of it nor conformity to it, but by the combustion within it of lives ignited by the Spirit of God." – Vance Havner

"We are justified, not by giving anything to God, - what we do, - but by receiving from God, what Christ hath done for us." – William Gurnall

"God does not justify us because we are worthy, but by justifying us make us worthy." – Thomas Watson

"Indeed this is one of the greatest mysteries in the world – namely, that a righteousness that resides with a Person in heaven should justify me, a sinner on earth." – John Bunyan

"Justification is away beyond anything that a human court of justice ever realizes. It is putting the sinner in the condition before God as if he had never sinned at all. It is giving him a standing in the merit of Jesus Christ of absolute innocency before God." – A.C. Dixon

New Product Releases:

The Church at PHILADELPHIA!! In the book of Revelation, Jesus speaks 7 messages to the 7 churches of Asia. These messages are universal to the Body of Christ and critically relevant to the church in this hour. We must listen attentively to the messages that are recorded for our correction, encouragement, and instruction. The Church of Philadelphia was a missionary city positioned for great opportunity before them. Although their strength was small, God did not count them out but opened great and divine doors before them. Discover how to live in the promotion and protection of God despite great opposition! (2 CDs)

The Church at LAODICEA!! In Revelation chapters 2 & 3, Jesus gives messages to the 7 churches of Asia. In this series, we will look at His directives to the Church of Laodicea. Discover how very relevant His instructions to the church are for our day and how we can truly step into who we are meant to be so that we can shine as God's representative in the earth! We must have hearts that are open to hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church now in this hour and receive His council for us so that we can enter into greater levels of intimacy with God and effectiveness in our world! (2 CDs) 7 Churches special! You can purchase all 7 series for $50 – (14 CDs - $70 value)!!!
