

Winning Kids Confessions!!

Our words are containers of power. They carry either life or death and release destiny and purpose as we speak them. We want to propel the next generation forward into success and one way we can help accomplish that is through our confession. Feel free to personalize these confessions inserting the names of your children and grandchildren! Remember God Himself watches over His Word to preform it!!! (Jeremiah 1:12)

What a privilege to have a part in shaping the identity of our children! Each one of them is like a package of potential – ready to be unleashed on this world to bring impact in significant ways. They are influencers, leaders, and joy carriers. We want to be the loudest voice in their development, the greatest advocate for their cause. We want them to have an identity that matches their God-given destiny!

Let's release these powerful declarations over them:
